Preface

Project "Earth" is about you, loving your brothers and sisters and all living things, and what you can do to save our earth. It is about the creation of you as mankind and your ability to communicate on levels you have never thought of before. After your introduction to these truths and expanded awareness of your responsibilities, you will more thoroughly understand how they have always been a part of you for this and many other life times.

This book and others that will follow are sent for your acceptance. It is for you to ascertain their true worth, to practice and exercise the intuition.

The information in this book is offered with love and the hope that you will be become more aware of the urgent need for a more peaceful, harmonious world so you can begin to make a difference in whatever way is open to you. As we are individually a part of the whole, continued efforts toward unity is aja's purpose.

Acknowledgments

We wish to thank Adrienne for her loving guidance - Bilantia for her excellent communication - Eric for his wisdom - Harry for his frankness - and Mother for her tender, loving care – which we surely needed during our long sessions. And again – Mother, for bringing us together to work on this project so that we could grow stronger and become more balanced within our daily lives.

INTRODUCTION

Once upon a time.....

How long has it been since you've read a book that began with those words? This is a true story . . . it began in Marina del Rey, California one day in 1987.

Once upon a time, there were we three women who had become friends. They had careers in different fields and specific talents which would soon be put to use.

All three of us had similar backgrounds: their children were grown, each had been married and divorced, we were currently single and had been drawn to new surroundings. Each had been exposed to various communications in spiritual awareness through Tarot card readings, yoga, healing, dowsing, and channeling.

This book is about the three of us and our project – but more importantly – it is about YOU. .

It all began one Sunday in 1987 while two of us were chatting together in our apartment. Eileen told Karen that a message was coming through and asked her to lie down on the couch. So Karen did. The message was from Adrienne who said all three of us had been chosen for a project and that we should get together as soon as possible. We then contacted Clarette and waited for her to arrive at our apartment for a further message.

Eileen has been psychic all her life, she'd been channeling and working with spirit souls for several years, and the messages were channeled through her. Sometimes she remembers what was channeled and sometimes she does not. When she doesn't remember the session, we would discuss it afterward. Very seldom did she ever read the material after it was transcribed.

The material that was channeled from the entities will be written in plain text and the material that is of our conversation or of questions from the three of us will be written in bold Italic. Comments are written within parentheses and in bold/italic) This will help you to see more clearly the dialogue between all of us (human beings/physical vehicles and spirit souls/non-physical entities) and how the sessions were conducted.

The Project

Well, I see you all finally got together. Yes, we are here. Clarette, my name is Adrienne. It is very nice to meet you. It's nice to meet you.

(In one of the other sessions on past lifetimes, we had asked Adrienne what her background was. We have inserted her response here.)

I have been through many, many life experiences both on your planet and on other planets in life forms. I am now at an interim. I'm on a spiritual level of learning. It is my chosen field to help in spiritual form, to bring the masses back into the fold. I have chosen to do this from where I am for I feel that I can have more influence in working through human bodies than I could if I were in human form at this time. The knowledge to me is greater at this time. I have the resources to draw on, and it is also easy for me to choose a medium and projects. I, like you, have been chosen for this project.

Will you ever return to life form again in the future?

We will all return to life form in the far future but it will be much different than any of you know it now.

You've all three been chosen for this project. It is necessary that you be together throughout the information transmittal. We are going to start by me letting you know what we plan on doing.

I would suggest you set up time during the week in the evening, if you wish, to spend possibly an hour together maybe twice a week for the next couple of months, as the information will be coming through at that time. At the end of each session, I will allow time for you to ask personal questions that really don't relate to the topic information.

The reason that we have chosen this time is that there are many people who are searching and needing the knowledge, many people needing to walk hand-in-hand and heart-in-heart. I have said WE in the previous statement for I am not alone; I am simply the spokesperson--there are 5. Each has his own area of expertise and each will be giving information to you from time to time. You may speak to one of the others, but predominately, I will be your vocal source.

You have been chosen to impart the information to the people. The people that will be drawn to you are the ones that need the knowledge and those are the people we are reaching or are trying to reach. It is the one who is ready to understand, and there will be many.

Why do you feel our message would be heard over the other messages being spread throughout the world at this time?

Let me ask you this: Was there only one teacher in your world when you were in grade school, or did it take many different schools and many different levels in order to learn all that needed to be learned? It is impossible for one project to teach all. Each project teaches from a different angle; each reaches a different level in the growth process.

You are aware of the visual, the feeling and the audio - the different ways mankind receives information. Therefore, what is said by one, even though it may be a simple statement, may only be heard or understood by a portion of the audience. If the same statement is presented by another in a little bit different way but for the same purpose, you may reach yet another portion of the audience. And still another teacher with a slightly different phrasing may reach yet another group of the audience. We do not wish to pinpoint only one segment of the people for this is the universe.

This information will be transmitted on your recorder and put in material form. It will then be compiled in logical order for the masses to understand and perceive for what is easiest for them to understand.

You all have other names and for the purpose of this project, I should prefer to call you by your other names, if that's agreeable. (We agree.) The names we were given are Andrina (Karen), Joy (Clarette) and Alena (Eileen). (Our spiritual names will be used throughout our book.)

( In one of our other sessions an entity named Eric McClain decided that he wanted to give us information on our spiritual names. When he finished, Adrienne said he was most insistent on doing his bit for the book. Eric was a jovial person with quite a Scottish brogue and when he came through, Alena's voice was deep and crisp. This is what Eric had to say: )

Hello there Lassies. You had questions about the names? I'm Eric McClain. Hello, Eric. He must be Irish. Scottish, my Lady. Never confuse the Scottish and the Irish. It could be grave! You questioned the names some time earlier. I go by Eric McClain. They sent me because as you know the Scottish names - the clans - have been feudin' for years. Feudin' all because of a name - because of a name that you're born with. Don't go by the color of the skin any more, goes by the name.

Now in this realm, it's a little bit different. We have all had many names. I prefer Eric McClain! The names that Adrienne gave you are a composite of your energies that have come through the years in your many lifetimes. You may or may not have had a physical name as such, but the energy vibration will stipulate a name along with its meaning or simply the vibration. Do you have any more questions about the names Lass? No. It shall be closed then. Goodbye to you all. Goodbye, Eric.

Channeling

We have chosen to channel information at this time. I use the word "time" very loosely for there is no time as you perceive it in your world. (This will be discussed further throughout the book.) In order to clarify channeling, think of a tube or a pipe. To channel is to send energy through this tube or pipe which is a connection between the world beyond (as many would perceive it) and the materialistic world. There is, however, no difference. It is simply a matter of vibration.

We are all one; we are all here. It's simply the tuning in of the communication to accept that knowledge which we transmit here. (The material seems to begin slowly, but it will pick up I assure you.)

Channeling, at this point in time in your world, is one of the easiest ways to reach the masses.

You have known your Bible and it is read by interpretation; interpreted by individuals in many different ways. The words written are true. It was meant to be interpreted by each individual for each person to do his own thinking and research.

(We had asked a question regarding the Bible and the antiquity and prejudice of some of the passages. Adrienne explained: )

The Bible was written many years ago. Your society and world have changed. The cultural standards have changed. Man has adapted them according to his desires. He has accepted and rejected again using a free will.

The Bible was written as a book of thought, one for each individual to read and to learn from and for himself. Each phrase and chapter written can be taken more than one way depending on the point of view. The trick, if you will, to reading the Bible is like reading any good novel. Not only do you put yourself in the shoes of those who are the gallant ones, you also put your feet in the shoes of those who are the poor souls.

In this way, you gain an understanding of what it is the characters in the book are doing; why they do it; why they feel the way they do; what motivates them; and the laws they are living within. It is simply an expansion of consciousness in looking from different realms. There is no need to take offense at the way a book is written. You simply view it from the writer's point or you view it from the character point.

If we were all to view from the character point, from the base of the soul to the outer skin, we would certainly gain realms of understanding when it comes to communicating with another human being.

Now the time has come, the end is near. It is very, very important that in order to transcend as a whole back to the God from which you descended, all must go. All who are chosen and all who choose - each your brother and your sister - must bond together at this time, for without each one there is a gaping hole. Consequently, there is a lack of completeness and the hole shall not be made whole.

Therefore, the purpose of this project is for those who are ready to hear the words and to know - those who are seeking the knowledge--to bring them in, to help them understand, to set their hearts free with love and to bring in others so that we may all be one as we again ascend to the Master - the Master being a supreme entity of which you are a part. The project is to open the hearts for the free flow of love and communication and understanding.

There seems to be, at this point in time, some conflict in questions with your people as to the God entity. The God entity is, of course, the supreme all-knowing energy. Every living thing is a part of this entity, not separate from, not fashioned from something apart from, but a living part of. It is your breath of life in every living thing.

As some people channel and information sources are distributed throughout your masses, there are some that understand and partake of the information; however, others are confused. Those who are confused are conflicted regarding what they want to hear and don't want to hear versus what they know. You may hear the argument against what you are doing as being evil, it is not; as being against God, it is not; that mankind is being self-centered and seeking only for himself, it is not.

What one must understand is that each one is not a God apart from God. They each are like a molecule that holds all of the information. Each molecule has the total knowledge and the total power and is a God in its own right but is still a portion of God. When all mankind and all living things come back together again as one, then you shall all see God in His glory for you again will be a part of God.

(Adrienne refers to our world, as we know it, coming to an end here and throughout the dictation. We asked what will happen at that time when our world does come to an end.)

You will no longer need your bodies. It is life ever after. You will no longer need your physical world. Your spiritual growth is how you say, "What's happening now baby!" (We broke out into laughter at her up-to-date colloquialism.)

Will all living things die at the same time or just human being?

Earlier, if you're lucky! There will be a great pestilence. There will be great destruction for the earth – as mankind is generating this himself. Mankind has chosen to destroy and those destructions will be many. There will be fire; there will be torment; there will be earthquakes. There will be many of nature's quirks that are not quirks because they have been brought about by the things that you have done to your earth. The earth will cease to exist as a planet for life form. For details on the coming days, you may read Revelations in your Bible, for it is quite accurate.

(After the dictation of this book was complete, Southern California experienced an earthquake measuring 6.1 of the Richter Scale as well as several after shocks for weeks following. In Part II, Chapter 6, Adrienne talks about the "big one.")

Project "Earth" by aia is an introduction – a metaphysical, or New Thought, primer - that will be equally valuable to those whose curiosity has just been raised, whose growth has just begun and those who are long-term students of cosmic awareness seeking a reminder.

Refreshing and informative, it provides a bridge for both those now ready to step into the age of Aquarius and those already aware of universal principles.

Beginning with the creation of mankind, this work continues on through communications, development, healing and the death stages of life. It discusses how to open the communications and probe deep into past experiences for answers to today's challenges.

Project Earth lays the ground work for your own research leading to further personal development. Concise and current, it is also a joy to read – for after all, it is YOUR story!

aia is the composite pen name of the three women referenced in the book as Andrina, Joy and Alena. At the time of the book's completion in 1988, their lives were intertwined and each had come to the book project after having followed a unique path to that point.

Andrina was a career-minded professional who is also deeply involved in exploring the spiritual aspects of life. Joy (Clarette) began her study of human potential initially in the course of her career in human resources and has continued this quest through many diverse experiences. Alena (Eileen) had already gone to the four corners of the earth in a lifetime quest for higher universal spiritual growth and understanding.

Over the subsequent years, all three have gone their separate ways, while staying in touch – and are very much still on the path of their own spiritual development and teaching enlightenment through their own individual projects.
